BOB HICKS SENT TO FRANKFORT TO PUT GRAVES RIGHT

Fate of Special Assessment Bonds in Hands of McCracken Statesman.

Will Tell Him The Boys Are All For It.

SENATOR EATON HERE SUNDAY.

Fate of Paducah's bill, permitting the general council to issue ten year special assessment bonds, rests in the hands of the Hon. "Gene" Graves, representative from this county, and so Robert Hicks, city licenses inspector, has been dispatched post-haste to Frankfort to get "Gene" on the track for it.

State Senator W. V. Eaton, who spent Sunday in Paducah, brought back the information that both bills have passed the senate and are pending in the house. That was news, because "Gene" had sent word back that the original substitute had passed the house. There is only one more legislative day after today. That is why Mr. Hicks was sent to Frankfort. He is a crony of Graves, and if "Gene" learns that the political crowd with which he trains is not for the bill, he is likely to be up and doing. Otherwise, "Gene" might suspect it of being something or others fostered by that "good government bunch", for which he entertains a profound contempt. "Gene's" experience at Frankfort has made him skeptical; he doesn't believe any measure is sincere, and he always inquires who is behind it. If the right party is behind it, he doesn't care what is under it. The faith of the whole city administration, legislative and executive, is placed to Bob Hicks.

State Senator W. V. Eaton was in Paducah for a few hours yesterday, but left at noon in order that he might attend the closing sessions of the senate. Mrs. Eaton has been in Frankfort and Senator Eaton accompanied her and his children to Paducah, where they will remain until Mr. Eaton returns.

Senator Eaton's Record. Senator Eaton said The Evening Sun's editorial Saturday did him an injustice by not excepting his name from the remark that the county would be better off without any representation in the legislature. He said he favored the tax reform, the school law, one of the good roads laws, the bill, requiring a higher standard of admission to the bar and the uniform accounting bill. He was author of the last two. He opposed the county unit bill. On most other questions of state-wide interest, including the opposition to the main features of the Wyatt-Bosworth good roads bill, Mr. Eaton and The Evening Sun stood together. Though Senator Eaton's partisanship got away with him on the state bond issue, the fact that the majority of the meritorious bills he supported were defeated, indicates that with anything like a representation of the citizenship of the state in the legislature Mr. Eaton might have been a factor in securing some excellent legislation. He made a reputation as among his colleagues as a parliamentarian.

Police Chiefs at Birmingham. The south gets the annual meeting of the International association of chiefs of police this year. The meeting will be held in Birmingham, Alabama time during May, the date not having been announced yet. Chief of Police Singery, of Paducah, became a member of the association upon his election January 1 and intends to attend the gathering. The association includes all of the United States and Canada.

PREPARING COURT YARD FOR SPRING PLANTING.

County Jailor Henry Houser and his deputies are busy cleaning the lawn of the county court house. All the trash has been raked off and burned, and blue grass will be planted on the bare spots. In a short time the flower beds will be planted and the yard made beautiful.

INGLESIDE REBEKAHS AT TRI-STATE MEETING

The degree team of Ingleside Rebekah lodge No. 17, has been invited to do the degree work at the tri-state Odd Fellows meeting at Golconda April 26. A meeting of the team and members of the lodge has been called for Tuesday night at the Three Links building to begin preparing for the exhibition. All members of the team are expected to be present.

Strychnine Mixed With Quinine Given to Livingston County Lady By Adopted Child--She May Die

Fire at Cloverport Wipes Out One Side of Principal Street Causing Great Financial Loss to Village.

Mickesville, Ky., March 14. (Special.)—As the result of her adopted daughter giving her strychnine with a dose of quinine, Mrs. Jane Tyner, 56 years old, is in a serious condition. Hope is entertained for her recovery, however, unless complications develop. Mrs. Tyner is a widow and has considerable wealth. About two years ago she adopted a child from the Louisville home of the Friends and gave her the name of Bertha Tyner.

The girl is about 13 years old. Early Saturday morning the girl gave Mrs. Tyner a dose of quinine mixed with strychnine, and in a few hours Mrs. Tyner was in a serious condition. Physicians worked with her and emptied her stomach of the poison.

Cloverport, Ky., March 14. (Special.)—Fire at 11 o'clock this morning caused a loss of $35,000 and burned every house on Third street between the river and High street with one exception, sweeping through the best residence section of the town. A bucket brigade, aided by the men from the Henderson Route shops, finally got the flames under control. Owensboro was asked for aid, but it did not come in time.

Among the houses destroyed were the residences of Mrs. Carter, Orville Skiffman, Henry Morton and several small residences and saw mills. A. T. Fisher's loss was $10,000 with small insurance. This house was the oldest and one of the handsomest in Cloverport, and there was no time to save any of the contents.

Gilbertsville P. M. It has been learned from Washington that J. W. Holsley has been recommended for postmaster at Gilbertsville, succeeding Postmaster Fielderson. Mr. Holsley is a successful merchant, and a man well qualified to hold the position. His appointment is a matter only of being affirmed.

MARBLE CONTRACT GOES TO WILLIAMSON FIRM

The contract for the inside stone and marble work in the remodeling of the post office has been let to J. E. Williamson Marble Works. Several concerns were after the contract, but the Paducah firm won out. This is the second local firm to secure one of the contracts for the work of remodeling the government building, as the interior wood work contract was awarded to Contractor B. T. Davis.

Police and Firemen Under Civil Service

Following is the full text of the Klair bill which has passed the house to take the policemen and firemen of Second class cities out of politics:

An act to repeal an act entitled "An act to amend and re-enact section three thousand one hundred and forty, Kentucky statutes," approved March 22, 1906; and to amend and re-enact section three thousand one hundred and forty of the Kentucky statutes compiled by John D. Carroll; and to amend and re-enact section three thousand one hundred and thirty-eight of the Kentucky statutes.

Be it enacted by the general assembly of the commonwealth of Kentucky,

Section 1. That an act entitled "An act to amend and re-enact section three thousand one hundred and forty, Kentucky statutes," approved by the governor March 22, 1906, be, and the same is hereby repealed, and the following, being section three thousand one hundred and forty, of the Kentucky statutes, compiled by John D. Carroll, is re-enacted as follows:

Section 3140. The number of fire-

THE WEATHER

The predictions and temperatures for the past twenty-four hours will be found at the top of the seventh column on page four.

NO ARBOR DAY. Paducah schools doubtless will not observe the state Arbor day, which has been designated as April 8 by Governor Wilson. For several years all of the schools have planted trees, but out of the number planted there are only one or two growing, and they are at the Whittier school. The young trees were planted in the spring and during the vacation would perish for the lack of water and attention. The janitors are not employed during the summer, and there was nobody to look after the trees. That the trees are alive at the Whittier school is due to the interest taken by the janitor, who watered the trees during the summer months. With these conditions Superintendent John A. Cagney said he could see little use in observing the day by planting trees.

MRS. TAFT FEELS SHOCK OF DEATH

PRESIDENT'S WIFE IN SERIOUS CONDITION--WASHINGTON NEWS.

Washington, March 14.—President Taft arrived here this morning from Pittsburgh, where he attended the funeral of his suicide brother-in-law. He spent an hour with Mrs. Taft. She is slowly recovering after a serious shock. Physicians are anxious for her welfare. They fear another such shock would be serious. President Taft cancelled his trip to New York and other eastern points tomorrow. He will leave Wednesday for Chicago.

Ellis' Successor. Washington, March 14.—The department of justice announced today the selection of William S. Kenney, of Fort Dodge, Ia., as assistant attorney general, succeeding Wade Ellis, of Ohio. The president sent the nomination to the senate this afternoon.

RAILROAD BILL.

Washington, March 14.—It is believed the administration's railroad bill will pass the senate only under great pressure from the president. The bill is materially changed. Progressives hope Mann's house bill will be accepted at a conference between both houses. The senate conference, consisting of Ellkins and two others, are opposed to Wickersham's measure and in general favor of Mann's bills.

Mr. Brooks Holiday left this morning for Fulton on business.

CONTRACTORS AND CARPENTERS WILL PROBABLY AGREE

Former Appoint Committee to Confer With Union About Scale.

Brick Men Have Secured an Increase in Wages.

APPOINTMENT MADE SATURDAY.

Contractors met Saturday afternoon for the purpose of considering the wage scale presented to them by the Carpenters' union. The present scale will expire May 1 and the union is asking an increase of 45 cents on the day in the scale. A committee was appointed by the contractors to confer with a committee from the union on the details of the wage scale. No trouble is anticipated in reaching a satisfactory agreement, as the majority of the contractors are not against paying the carpenters $3.45 a day.

The best of feeling exists between the builders and the contractors at present, and neither the employer nor the employee are desirous of having any trouble. The carpenters are able to work only part of the year because of bad weather and the advance in the wage scale is only in proportion to the rise in the price of food and living.

Alleged Swindlers Free

Council Bluffs, Iowa, March 14.—Judge McPherson dismissed indictments against E. F. Moll and James R. Morrison, defendants in the Mahray case this morning. The victims of the swindling lived in Canada and would not appear in court as witnesses. The court was unable to compel them, and dismissed the indictments.

KHARTOUM MEETS MR. BWANO TUMBO

MIGHTY HUNTER BIDS MEN FAREWELL AND TURNS TO GREET WIFE.

Khartoum, March 14.—Colonel Roosevelt and Kermit arrived at "Gordon's Tree," the scene made memorable by the English general, "Chinese" Gordon, this noon. It is a few miles from Khartoum. They will enter the city this afternoon. Hundreds of letters and telegrams were delivered to him today. They will stay at the residence of Sir John Wingate until they go to the depot to meet his wife and Ethel. The meeting will be private. Captain Clayton, of Sirdars' staff, proceeded up the river this morning and officially welcomed them. A police bodyguard is already provided.

Colonel Roosevelt made a triumphal entry into Khartoum this afternoon. There was no official display, but great crowds lined the wharf and cheered the steamer Dal and her passengers. Roosevelt was dressed in a khaki hunting suit and slouch hat. He went at once to the palace, where a private dinner was held. He was escorted between a line of armed guards. After the dinner he took leave of the negroes, who had been his companions on the hunt. Each was rewarded with a gift. Arrangements were made to meet his wife and daughter.

Christian Uprising. Athens, March 14.—Violent demonstrations throughout Thessaly today are the result of the refusal of the government to grant demands of Christian peasants for big land owners, Turks and Mohammedans, to divide lands. The peasants attacked the land owners, killing, burning and sacking homes. The land owners turned their homes into fortresses. It is feared the troops will aid peasants.

Count No Humbug. Stuttgart, March 14.—Hermann Lange was sentenced to five months, he called Count Zeppelin a humbug for inventing the dirigible balloon.

Druggist Yeiser Again. Former Mayor D. A. Yeiser has bought back his old place of business at Third and Jackson streets, and will open a drug store as soon as his new fixtures and new stock of drugs arrive. He sold out when he became mayor, but has secured the lease on the premises and re-entered the old business.

Calloway County's Special Levy For Court House Has Passed Both Houses and is Now Up to Governor

Prison Investigation Report, Stripped of Some of Its Fulsomeness, is Submitted to Senate by Taylor.

Frankfort, Ky., March 14. (Special.)—The report of the special joint committee investigating the prison conditions, was made to the senate by Senator E. M. Taylor today. The report is revised from the one formerly prepared, which was too fulsome in its praise of the commissioners themselves. The report says everything in the prison is as it should be. Discipline is excellent, the tasks light, the food and sanitation first class and the quarters as good as possible in the present buildings. There is no excessive nor brutal punishment. Campaign contributions are voluntary.

Calloway Court House Bill.

The house passed the bill, allowing the fiscal court of Calloway county to levy taxes to build a court house.

Governor Wilson vetoed the Holland bill, prohibiting the building of a negro industrial school without the consent of the people of the precinct.

The senate passed the house bill, prohibiting persons, seeking to go on the ballot by petition, from adopting the device of a political party that has a right to nominate a candidate to a convention or primary.

The senate passed a resolution, providing that a state good roads commission shall be appointed by the senate rules committee, the governor and the house speaker to report to the next assembly.

BEEF TRUST MUST PRODUCE BOOKS

STANDARD OIL HEARING IN SUPREME COURT THIS AFTERNOON.

Trenton, N. J., March 14.—Judge Swynsee, in an opinion filed today, directs the National Packing company to bring before him all the books asked for inspection by Prosecutor Garven, who says they'll show the food prices were unnecessarily increased by combination.

Standard Oil Case. Washington, March 14.—The argument in the Standard Oil case before the supreme court begins late this afternoon.

Helke Gains Hearing. The supreme court of the United States today denied the motion made by the government to set aside the order of Justice Lurton, bringing the case of Charles R. Helke, before that body, and granted permission to Helke's attorneys to file a petition for a writ of mandamus. Helke was former secretary of the sugar trust, indicted in connection with the customs weighing frauds.

TWO AUTOMOBILES HAVE COLLISION

PASSENGER IN ONE CAR RECEIVES SEVERE CUT--CARS DAMAGED.

Two automobiles collided at Ninth and Jefferson streets at noon yesterday and Architect W. L. Brainard, who occupied a car seat in the Ford roadster of H. A. Petter, sustained a slight gash on the right forehead.

Mr. Brainard was in company with Mr. Petter in the latter's machine, driven by Louis Petter. They were going west on Jefferson street and on reaching Ninth street Dr. H. M. Childress, driving a Buick north on Ninth street, is said to have caught his coat sleeve in the throttle and the machines struck, the Buick hitting the Ford in the center of the left side. The Ford was damaged about $100, the front and rear fenders having been broken, the running board and the back axle wrenched.

Dr. Childress' machine was damaged about $50 and the front wheel punctured and wrenched. A lamp was smashed also. After the accident Dr. Childress was taken in the Ford machine and sped to his office where he dressed Mr. Brainard's wound. Both machines were placed in a garage for repairs.

YOUNG THEODORE; PHILANDER, TOO!

ISN'T IT WONDERFUL? BOTH WILL WORK FOR A LIVING!

Providence, R. I., March 14.—Phillander Knox, Jr., started work today as an automobile salesman and demonstrator.

Teddy Gets Raise. New York, March 14.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., will reside in San Francisco immediately after his marriage to Miss Alexander, probably in June. George Perkins, treasurer of the Hartford Carpet company, and Rhoren mills where Roosevelt works, said the youngster will be given a responsible position in the Frisco branch after his marriage. He last made a big raise in salary.

Jap Fishers Drowned

Tokio, March 14.—Several hundred fishermen are missing today as the result of the worst storm that has swept the Japanese coast since 1880. One hundred vessels are scattered. The cruiser Takachio was dispatched to the rescue.

POSTMASTER A. DOWNS WILL SUCCEED HIMSELF

Postmaster A. Downs, of Murray, has received his appointment as postmaster to succeed himself. It came forty-eight days ahead of time. Mr. Downs was a strong Taft supporter in the First district, and is for Attorney General Breckinridge for governor.

YOUNG GAINES AND HIS CHORUS LADY

WILL GO TO OKLAHOMA TO SEEK FORTUNE--KNOWN HERE.

Cincinnati, O., March 14.—John Wesley Gaines, Jr., son of the famous ex-congressman from the Nashville district, in Tennessee, who was married on Friday at Hamilton, O., to Miss Alexandria Anette Oetzel, a chorus girl, has seriously wounded his father by this match. He was told this over the telephone. In fact, the distinguished Nashville man doesn't care to have his son return home. Therefore young Gaines has decided that he will go to Oklahoma and begin the practice of law. He says he really doesn't care much what his father thinks of the match, and that he can do well in Oklahoma City by himself.

Young Mr. Gaines is well known in the city. For several summers he has visited in the city. Last summer he paid Paducah a visit, and during his stay in the city made many friends to whom the news of romance proved a big surprise.

MORE CITY BONDS ARE OFFERED IN THE EAST

Mayor Smith has received an inquiry from Merrill, Oldham & company, of Boston, about the price the city is offering for outstanding bonds. The company can secure $25,000 of the railroad bonds due in 1926. The city has $5,564.09 in the sinking fund for the retirement of these bonds. The mayor will ask the company to make an offer. Eastern brokers are writing to inquire about the city's terms, for the purpose of scalping.

GROCERY CLERKS REFUSES TO GO ON GENERAL STRIKE

Which Would Have Produced Food Famine in City of Philadelphia.

Miners Go to Meeting to Settle Question.

THOUSANDS ARE INTERESTED.

Philadelphia, March 14.—A general strike of grocery clerks, causing a food shortage in the city, was proposed by strikers yesterday but was unsuccessful. Most of such employees are working as usual today. The situation is quiet.

Attracted by a fire in a boxcar filled with hay on a railway siding at Kensington, a crowd of several thousand persons collected late Sunday afternoon. Small boys threw stones at some of the police and later the windows of a number of cars were broken before the reserves got the crowd under control. Aside from this outbreak, cars were run without molestation, and there were more cars in operation than on any Sunday since the strike began.

The police and company officials agree in the statement that the situation is improving hourly. The rough element, which the company was compelled to hire when the strike was suddenly sprung, is being weeded out and a better class of men now operates the cars.

"And we are getting the fares, too," declared an official. "Where two weeks ago 300,000 fares were collected in one day, yesterday 750,000 fares were turned in. This is, of course, accounted for in part by the fact that we are running more cars and people are using them more freely."

The question of the settlement of the strike is still the uppermost thought in the minds of the citizens of Philadelphia. Nearly everybody considers arbitration as the natural method, but how to arbitrate is the question, when the company insists there is nothing to arbitrate.

Won't Recognize Union. The officials and directors stick to their original declaration that the union will not be dealt with, and they are apparently just as determined today as they were three weeks ago. The officials of the Amalgamated Carriers' Union are just as determined that no settlement will be accepted that does not include full recognition of the union. And there the matter stands.

The company offers to take strikers back and does not demand that they shall drop their union membership, but it insists that the union shall cut no figure in any peace negotiations. In other words, it is for the "open shop" plan. It is not believed any effort to secure outside intervention or the mediation of the civic federation, President Taft, Governor Stuart or any one else, will hear fruit.

The company officials are silent regarding the action of the Interstate Railways company in increasing to 23 cents an hour the wages of motormen and conductors in Trenton, Reading, Wilmington, Chester, Lebanon and Norristown. The Philadelphia Rapid Transit company at present pays 22 cents an hour with a promise of an increase to 23 cents on July 1, to men employed more than one year.

Miners May Strike.

Cincinnati, March 14.—United mine workers are flocking here for a special convention, which will decide whether 300,000 will strike. They want ten cents a ton increase.

K. P. Go to Mayfield

At the regular meeting of the Knights of Pythias lodge tonight arrangements will be completed for the visit to Mayfield tomorrow evening. Quite a large number of the members will go on the 6:15 train, returning at an early hour next morning. The local lodge has been asked to assist in the conference of the third rank upon two candidates, and an interesting meeting is anticipated.

Traveling Man Hurts His Hand.

Blood poison has resulted from a small injury to the hand of Mr. S. Bryant, of St. Louis, the oldest son of Mr. Z. H. Bryant. He saw a splinter in his hand some time ago, and although little was thought of the injury, it developed into blood poison. However, it is believed that he will recover and will save the hand. He is a traveling salesman for Burrow-Jones & Dyer, and left Paducah last fall for St. Louis to reside.

News of Theatres

"As Told in the Hills" at the Kentucky March 18, with Princess Wah Ta-Waso, a real full blooded Indian actress, who takes the leading role of the female parts. She is the only Indian woman on the American stage taking so important a part.

The Wyoming Girl company is pronounced by press and clergy as a moral and instructive performance. Don't miss it at the Kentucky matinee and night, Saturday, March 19.

Among the early bookings at the Kentucky theater is Henry B. Harris' production of James Forbes' comedy success, "The Traveling Salesman." Mr. Forbes is known as the author of "The Chorus Lady" and the attempt in the new play has been to reproduce "life on the road" as he previously depicted it "behind the scenes."

Among the principals to appear in the production are Austin Webb, Rosalind Coghlan, Florence Hackett, Harriet Sheldon, Dan Baker, Joseph Sullivan, Gleason Burton, Jack L. Newton, Geo. M. DeVere, Scott Higgins, George Smithfield, John Von Statten, and those two clever child actors Janet Hackett and Master Albert Hackett.

At the Star Theater.

Old King Belshazzar would die again if he could see this weird handwriting on the wall, "Menetekel," the mystery of Babylon, who is the starting feature at the Star theater this week.

If you saw a small tennis ball crawl over a sheet of paper, which is suspended in midair, you would bite your little finger to see whether you are dreaming, wouldn't you? You are awake; the ball, which has been dipped in ink, does not crawl aimlessly, but writes words you whisper to the young magician, who invented this novel illusion. Of course, you want to find out how it is done. You step on the stage and look in vain for mirrors, traps, wires or hidden assistants. You satisfy yourself that the paper is not chemically prepared. The name of this clever illusion, which has mystified Europe, is "Menetekel," the mystery of Babylon. The inventor, William Berol, introduces this puzzle in delightful fashion, his witty patter and clever trick keeping the audience surprised and amused.

Among the other novelties Mr. Desherger has secured are the Adams Brothers, the famous roller skate comedians, who will do everything but skate in their laughable act. But they make fun of the most refined order.

Miss Florence Clark, a singing and talking comedienne, will also entertain with some new comedy songs.

Two reels of motion pictures and an illustrated song, sung by Mr. Frank Long, will complete what Mr. Desherger claims will be the best program that has ever been put on at the Star. The admission will be 10 cents; children 5 cents. See the Sun for change of program for the last three days of the week.

BOTH GAMES LOST TO CAIRO HIGH

GIRLS DEFEATED IN AFTER-NOON AND BOYS AT NIGHT.

High Baskets and New Boundary Rules Were Against Paducah.

WERE ROYALLY ENTERTAINED

Both basketball games were lost to the Cairo teams last Saturday by the girls' and boys' teams of the High school. The Paducah players made every effort to win the contests, but were beaten decisively. The girls lost the game by a score of 26 to 2, while the boys were defeated 22 to 11. The fact that the baskets were higher than the local players have been accustomed to and different boundary rules put the Paducah teams at a slight disadvantage.

Both games were attended by large crowds, and the interest was high. In the afternoon the girls played, but the Cairo girls threw baskets with better aim, and soon had the bigger end of the score.

The game between the boys at night was closer, and up to the close of the first half the score was a tie, but the half ended 9 to 12 in favor of the Cairoites. In the second half the Cairo boys increased the lead, while Paducah only gained two points. Hughes turned his ankle, but kept on with the game.

The Lines-up.

The girls lined up: Cairo—Anna Flores, center; Laura Clendenen and Kate Gilhofer, forwards; Corinne Walker and Alice Hastings, guards.

Paducah—Clara Stewart, center; Ida Lea Stegar and Martha Cope, forwards; Grace Stewart and Pauline Rock, guards.

The boys lined up: Cairo—Colp, center; Hill and McManera, forwards; Reed and Martiney, guards.

Paducah—Fain King, center; Henry Ogilvie and Ward Browning, forwards; George Hughes and Marvin Sills, guards. Prof. Hugh H. Craig was one of the officials.

After the games the Cairo students entertained the Paducah students with a reception and extended every courtesy. The boys returned early yesterday morning, while the girls returned home last night.

AMEND CUMMINS BILL.

Altered Clause Would Have Allowed Persecution of Periodicals.

Washington, March 1.—An echo of the government prosecutions of the Indianapolis News and New York World for alleged criminal libel in connection with the Panama canal articles was heard today when Representative Sulzer, of New York, appeared before a sub-committee of the house judiciary committee protesting that the Cummins bill, which passed the senate, would make legal the indictment and prosecution of the District of Columbia newspapers and magazines published anywhere in the country. The Cummins bill is designed to prevent the fraudulent use of the mails, and in a letter to Representative Sulzer, Senator Cummins renounces any idea of reaching newspapers and other publications charged with libel. Mr. Sulzer offered an amendment to the bill covering the ground desired and which members of the committee indicated would be acceptable to them.

SIX ESCAPE FROM JAIL.

Wholesale Delivery Took Place During Night at Union City.

Union City, Tenn., March 14.—Upon rising this morning Sheriff T. J. Basterwood discovered that he had had during the night a wholesale jail delivery. Of seven white prisoners confined here, six made good their escape. Sheriff Basterwood immediately telephoned to Dyersburg for bloodhounds, which arrived at 10 o'clock and took the trail at once, circling the town and going down the Mobile & Ohio railroad track to Hives, at which place it is supposed the escaped prisoners boarded a train.

The men were Smith and Pete Bransham, two brothers, convicted at the last term of court for murder and sentenced to 15 and 20 years, respectively, in the penitentiary; Presley Jones, Owen Blylock, Will Blankfoot and Roy Wilson.

TENNIS TOURNAMENTS

PLANNED THIS SUMMER

That spring is here is the opinion of the large number of tennis players in the city. The racket wielders are busy planning for series of games as soon as the courts are placed in condition, which will be in a short time. Tennis is a game that has taken with many people in Paducah, and some of the players are considering organizing a league, and battling for a cup. Last year challenges were received from several of the surrounding towns for tournaments. Owing to the short notice the Paducah players did not feel competent to go against players in condition, but this summer it is possible that the tournament may be arranged.

POLICE AND FIREMEN

Following words "And may remove them with or without cause," so that said section when so amended and re-enacted shall read as follows, to-wit:

Section 3138. The said commissioners shall have full control over the police and fire departments of the city together with all the property and paraphernalia thereof, or belonging thereto, and may make or ordain and put into execution such by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of said departments as may be deemed expedient, and may prescribe the qualifications of the firemen and officers and members of the police and fire departments respectively. They shall appoint a chief of police and all policemen, a chief of detectives and all detectives, and a chief of the fire department and all subordinates, and shall fix the salaries of the chiefs of all departments and prescribe their duties and, they may grade the officers of said departments and prescribe their several duties.

Section 3138-b. The board of commissioners is authorized and empowered to adopt and enforce rules, orders and regulations not in conflict with this act, for the government, discipline and administration of the police and detective departments, and of the officers and members thereof. The said board shall require all applicants for appointment as members of said police or detective force, to stand an examination as to his qualifications to fill the office of policeman or detective and to his knowledge of the English language, and as to the law and rules governing the duties of policemen or detectives and each member and officer of the police or detective force, shall be a qualified voter of the city in which he is appointed and able to read and write the English language, understanding it, and otherwise comply with such qualifications as may be prescribed. No person shall be appointed a member or officer of the police or detective force, unless he is well known to be a man of sobriety and integrity and has been and is an orderly law-abiding citizen, nor shall any person be appointed a member or officer of said force on account of any political sentiment or affiliations, nor shall any officer or member of said force be removed or discharged or reduced in grade, or in pay, for any political partisan opinion. Their appointments and continuance upon the police or detective force shall depend solely upon their ability and willingness to enforce the law, and comply with the rules of the police department. Oliver Tablets Will Cure Constipation. Constipation may be called the curse of America. Eighty per cent of all people need laxatives often; also need the liver regulated. Constipation is not only uncomfortable but dangerous. Typhoid fever, appendicitis, neuralgia, headaches and various other ailments are often caused by constipation. Look the facts squarely in the face. Don't you need to help the liver and bowels more than you do—don't you need to take fewer chances? Use a mild laxative, one that is designed to cure constipation. Dr. Edward's Olive Tablets, the one effective substitute for Calomel, acts gently, yet firmly and promptly. You can't estimate their value until you try them.

These little Olive Oil and vegetable tablets are the result of Dr. Edward's fifteen years' hard study among his patients. Must they not be good? Try them and see for yourself. When you need a physic; when you need something to drive away that dull, torpid feeling, take Olive Tablets. They will do it pleasantly and surely. At all druggists in neat 10c and 25c packages. All members of the police or detective force at the time this law takes effect and after the general council has fixed by ordinance pursuant to this act the number of policemen or detectives, and all members thereof (who may hereafter be appointed, shall hold said position during good behavior.

Section 3138-b. No member or officer of the police or detective force shall be removed from the force, reduced in grade or pay, upon any reason, except inefficiency, misconduct, insubordination or violations of law, or rules adopted by the commission. Any person may present charges against an officer or member of the police or detective force, which must be filed in the office of the mayor, who shall thereupon communicate said charges without delay to the other members of the said board. Said charges must be written, signed by the person making said charges, and must set out with clearness and distinctness each and every charge. It shall be the duty of the mayor, when ever probable cause appears to prefer charges against any member or officer of the police or detective force, whom he believes to have been guilty of any conduct justifying his removal, or punishment, in the interest of the public order. The charges filed by the mayor shall be written and shall set out with distinctness and clearness the charges made, and upon the hearing of any charges, as hereinafter provided, all said charges shall be considered as traversed, and put in issue, and the trial shall be confined to those issues so presented. All charges against members or officers of the police or detective force shall be forthwith filed by the mayor with the clerk of the said board, and within three days after said filing, the commissioners shall proceed to hear and examine said charges, provided two days before said hearing, the officer or member of the police or detective force accused has been served with a copy of said charges, and a statement of the day, place and hour at which and when the hearing of said charges shall begin. The person accused may, however, in writing waive the services of said charges and demand trial within three days after said charges are filed with the clerk of said board. The board of police and fire commissioners shall have the power to summon and compel the attendance of witnesses at all sittings, or hearings, by said board and served upon said witnesses by an officer authorized to serve subpoenas from any court of justice in the county, and said board shall have all powers of a justice of peace, to punish for contempt. The officer or member of the police or detective force accused, shall have the right to have subpoenaed in his behalf, any witness he may desire, upon furnishing their names to the clerk of said board, and shall further have the right to appear in person and by counsel at the hearing of said board, the finding of said board shall be reduced to writing as a judgment, and shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and the written charges filed in the matter shall also be recorded in full in said book immediately preceding the record of finding of said board. In cases where the mayor has probable cause to believe that the officer or member of the police or detective force may be guilty of any conduct justifying removal or punishment he may suspend said officer or member from duty, or from both pay and duty, pending said trial, and said officer or member shall not be placed on duty, or allowed pay thereafter, until the charges are heard by the police and fire commissioners. The board shall fix the punishment against an officer or member of the police or detective force, found guilty of any charge under this statute, at a reprimand or at a fine not to exceed $100 or suspension not any length of time in their judgment not to exceed six months or by reducing the grade, if the accused be an officer, or by combining any two or more of said punishments, or removal or dismissal from the service of either officer or member of the police or detective force except as provided in this act, shall be fined, reprimanded, removed, suspended or dismissed from the police or detective force until written charges have been made or preferred against him, and trial had as herein provided.

Section 3138-c. Any officer or member of the police or detective force who shall be found guilty by the board of any charges, as hereinafter provided, shall have the right to appeal to the circuit court of the county in which said city may be located, provided the punishment be a fine of $20 or more, or a suspension of more than ten days, or reducing the grade of an officer, or removal or dismissal from the police force, and the enforcement of the judgment of said board under said charges shall be suspended pending appeal, provided accused executes a supersedeas bond, in which he shall undertake to repay the city all cost of said appeal and all salary he may receive from the time of said judgment and pending said appeal. Upon the request of the party accused the clerk of the board shall file a certified copy of the charges made, and of the judgment or finding of the board in the circuit court, which cause shall be docketed in the circuit court and tried de novo by the judge of the said court, but upon the demand of the accused, or of the city, said cause shall be tried before a

A DESTROYER OF HUMAN LIFE

Have you ever had a close look at a tapeworm? Have you ever seen its head? Have you ever seen its thousands of hooks, each with a separate mouth, which absorb the nourishment intended for human sustenance? If you have not just call at W. H. McPherson's drug store, 425 Broadway, and he will be glad to show you some specimens. Tapeworms are common, very common, and many people who suffer from chronic complaints of the liver, kidneys or stomach, will never again spend a healthy day unless the first cause of the troubles is removed, and this cause is none other than the tapeworm.

People don't always know that they have a tapeworm; they will be suffering from a complication of supposedly stomach troubles, grow weaker each day, get up in the morning with a tired, restless feeling, have indigestion and biliousness, and receive treatment for those ailments, when in reality the true cause of the whole trouble is a tapeworm. These horrible monsters are day by day getting the best of the person in whose system they are thriving, sucking the very life from them—surely dragging them down to an early death.

People should bear in mind that this trouble cannot possibly be cured except by removing the cause—expelling the worm. These death-dealing monsters are due to the eating of raw or poorly cooked meats. All meat of this kind is dangerous, for unless it be thoroughly cooked, it may contain the eggs from which these worms originated; so unless it is cooked sufficiently to kill the eggs, it is taken into the stomach, where it hatches and grows at an astonishing rate, larger each day, until it has reached enormous proportions, and pulls you down, making you fit for nothing.

Should this meet the notice of any one who is afflicted with one of these monsters, now is the opportunity to get rid of it. Quaker Extract will expel it, surely and quickly, without dieting or pain, in a few hours. At McPherson's drug store, 425 Broadway.

Should the clerk of the board fail to certify and transmit the aforesaid to the circuit court within five days after the request is made for same, then party aggrieved may file an affidavit in the said circuit court, setting out as fully as possible, the changes made, the time of the trial by said board, and the judgment of said board, together with the contents of the fact that demand for transcript had been made upon the clerk of said board more than five days before the filing of said affidavit. Upon the filing of said affidavit in the circuit court, said cause shall be docketed in said court, and the circuit court is hereby authorized to

Nature's Hair Restorer

One Great Reason Why

This Great Hair Beautifier and Color Restorer
Produces Such Remarkable Results

Sulphur is a Natural Element of the Hair

When there is not a sufficient amount of sulphur in the hair, it loses its life, color and strength, turns gray, and falls out. There are many forms of sulphur, but only one kind that is suitable for treatment of the hair and scalp, and that is the kind used in preparing WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY.

We Have the Secret, and We Give You the Benefit of It at an Exceedingly Low Price

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin, until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly, until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is now fairly covered with hair, and it keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.

Union Program For Legislation is Outlined.

Washington, D. C., March 14.—
Any lingering doubt as to the wonderful national power of the Farmers' Union has been dramatically dissipated. In a speech before the House
from representatives and senators, Republicans and Democrats and insurgents, letters in reply to the congressional poll instituted by President Barrett, of the Farmers' Union, are rolling in. His secretaries and assistants here are literally swamped
by the inundation.

Old politicians, veteran campaigners, do not remember anything in recent history approaching the significance of the spectacle which represents the congress of the United States eagerly anxious to get on the bandwagon of an agricultural organization boasting in the neighborhood
of 2,000,000 members.

Today Mr. Barrett sent out to Farmers' Union papers one hundred letters from every shade of congressmen, including reactionaries and progressives. Accompanying these copies, is an introduction in which he states that this is merely the first installment and that others are to follow until every congressman has either been heard from in public, or definitely located as refusing to commit himself.

It will be remembered that Mr.
Barrett's original letter, put six leading questions, as follows, to congressmen, inquiring his attitude toward:

1. Abolishing gambling in farm products.
2. Securing, without delay a par-

"While a resident of Washington, D. C., I suffered continually and intensely with a bronchial trouble that was simply terrible to endure. I would have sworn that I could hardly breathe. I would choke up, fill up in my throat and bronchial tubes, and the doctoring that I did and the remedies used were of no benefit to me
whatsoever. I heard about Booth's Hymel being so beneficial in catarrhal and bronchial affections and procured an outfit. I received relief from the first by its use. I continued with it and received a cure.
It is about two years since I have suffered at all from my former trouble."

R. R. STRIKE MAY TIE UP THE WEST

EVERY ROAD BETWEEN CHICAGO
AND PACIFIC WILL BE HIT.

Railroads Willing to Arbitrate Wage Dispute, But Other Demands, Say, Conserve Discipline.

25,000 FIREMEN MAY QUIT WORK

Chicago, March 14.—The threatened walk-out of 25,000 firemen on practically all the railroad systems
between Chicago and the Pacific coast reached a critical stage today
when W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen
and Engineers, formally notified
the railroads that if the entire controversy was not submitted to arbitration a strike would be inevitable.

Mr. Carter's letter of notification
was endorsed by the brotherhood's
committee, which represents the firemen on about forty-seven railroads,
west, northwest and southwest of Chicago. The letter was sent to W.
C. Nixon, general manager of the St.
Louis and San Francisco railroad, who is chairman of the railroad general
managers' committee.

The letter follows:

"Dear Sir—Your letter of this date (March 13) wherein you state that the managers' committee declines to further consider matters in controversy, has been received, and
in reply our committee instructs me
to say:

"If there is to be a great railway strike the responsibility must and will rest upon the managers' committee. That there may be no misunderstanding concerning this responsibility our committee hereby proposes the submission of all matters in dispute to an adjustment by arbitration.

"The public has been informed,
through the press, that matters in controversy cannot be arbitrated, because they involve the authority of railway officials and the discipline of employees. This statement our committee emphatically denies.

"The officials of many railroads
represented by the managers' committee do not hesitate to confess the gross injustice perpetrated under present practices.

"Our committee directs me to request the managers' committee,
through you, if this proposition to arbitrate is not accepted by the managers' committee that you notify us
at your earliest convenience."

Don't Want a Strike.

The railroads previously announced their willingness to arbitrate the increased wage demand, which the firemen say would amount to about 12 1/2 per cent. Two other demands involved, the managers say, concern
discipline and authority and are not open to arbitration. These points have to do with the promotion of firemen and questions whether when they become engineers they are still under the jurisdiction of the brotherhood.

"Does your letter mean that if a satisfactory reply is not received, a strike will be called?" Mr. Carter was asked.

"It looks pretty grave," he said.
"We are nearer a disagreement than
we have ever been during the whole six weeks of conferences. We do not want a strike. We want the public to understand that. As to our authority to strike we have the vote of more than 80 per cent of the men in favor of it. All of the answers we have received from the managers heretofore have been evasive. I hope their next reply will not be so."

Managers 'Standing Pat.'

It was learned that the managers
had agreed to stand "pat," and while refusing to make any concessions
probably would invite the brother-hood's committee to another conference tomorrow. After conferring with Mr. Nixon, O. L. Dickson, assistant to the president of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road,
gave out the following statement:

"We have received Mr. Carter's letter, which to the laymen who is not thoroughly familiar with the methods of labor organizations
would appear to be somewhat serious and permit a strike. I wish to say that this is merely one of the methods unfortunately invoked in conducting such negotiations, and it is not likely that the men would sanction the action of their leaders
in calling a strike over one or two technical points. We do not feel the slightest apprehension over the difficulty. The managers in due time, probably tomorrow, will make definite answer to the firemen's committee, and we hope for a peaceful adjustment."

Opponents of the use of concrete
for floors in factories contend that the stone-like surface is injurious to the feet and backs of workmen, and that dust ground from the concrete finds its way into and injures the machine bearings.

SELLS STORY OF HER OWN MISERY

MILWAUKEE WOMAN WRITES OF
HER MARITAL INFELICITIES.

Has Story Published in Newspaper,
and Then Gets on Street and Sells Papers.

WOULD DEFEAT HER HUSBAND.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 14.—Mrs.
Clinton G. Price, who two weeks ago tonight electrified Milwaukee by standing on a prominent downtown
corner giving passersby a copy of an extra edition of a weekly newspaper
containing an account of her suit for divorce against her husband, who is the first assistant city attorney, today
launched another extra edition explaining her action.

Answering the question, "Why did
I do it?" Mrs. Price says:

"Outraged as I was, beyond endurance, I felt that it was a duty that I owed to the community to let the people of Milwaukee know something at least about the character of the man who is before them for election
to the high office of judge.

"Mr. Price constantly reiterated that he would not live with me any longer, that he desired to be free
from me, in order that he might continue to lead his depraved life; that nothing that I could do would appear in the Milwaukee papers, and that he could muzzle the papers. The Times,
however, was kind enough to print
my story.

Most Solemn Vows Broken.

"And saying this, I do not mean that my purpose was one of vengeance, as I deny that absolutely. I felt that his candidacy for a judgeship was an incident for which I was in no wise responsible and that this should not deter me from doing my part, difficult as it might be, to guard the public and innocent persons who might in the future meet
this man.

"Can it be possible that the people
of Milwaukee will condone the treatment that has been given me?"

"My every means in my power I have tried to do my duty as a wife.
I have borne humiliation time and again.

"One after another the sacred relations of our married life were invaded.

"The most solemn vows were broken by Mr. Price. Appeals and tears availed naught with him.

Flaunted Amours in Face.

"I, his wife, had to stand by while he consorted with one woman of the street after another, and flaunted his amours in my face and recognized
questionable characters on the public streets in public concerts and elsewhere in my presence.

"I want nothing but justice.
I have done for Mr. Price all that a true and dutiful wife could do.

"He has openly told me of his
shocking conduct.

"He has laughed at me when in
my despair, seeing my married life
in ruins, I have sought to awaken his manhood and his better nature to a realization of the enormity of his offense in the eyes of men and of his God.

"My pleadings fell upon deaf ears.
I have been ill and under the care of physicians as a result of his almost unbelievable brutality.

"For years I have been patient,
and have suffered the deepest drops
of humiliation, believing that the marriage vows are sacred and that I should abide by them as long as human endurance held out.

Fighter of Women.

"My dreams and my hopes of reconciliation finally came to an end. Mr.
Price's conduct could not longer be condoned. He deserted me at last.
This happened on the 20th day of last February, when he left me at the noon hour in the boarding house of Mrs. Jeanette Nicholson, 222 Fourth street. He gave me no inkling of his intentions, and I knew nothing of the matter until later, when I noticed that he had taken his effects
with him.

"In this extremity I told Mr. Price
that I would be compelled to not only
stop handing him gifts of money,
which he seemed unable to earn for himself—that he would have to stop hereafter living off a woman (even if that woman were his wife), and that I would become compelled to apply for a separation. He laughed at me, this man with a military record, and said, 'Go ahead; that will help elect me.' He added insult to the fearful injustice of which he was guilty. He, it seems, is a fighter of women, this manly man.

"I felt that there would be added
to my humiliation the further danger of publicity in the newspapers. In the event that a suit were begun, he laughed again, when I pointed this out to him. He dared me to go ahead, saying again, 'I have the press of Milwaukee muzzled.'"

There are more medical schools

their education in Philadelphia than in any other city in the United States.

Your Money Back If You Are Not Satisfied With the Medicine
We Recommend.

We are so positive that our remedy will permanently relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine at our expense should it
fail to produce satisfactory results.

It is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Laxatives or cathartics do much harm. They cause a reaction, irritate and weaken the bowels and tend to make constipation more chronic. Besides, their use becomes a habit that is dangerous.

Constipation is caused by a weakness of the nerves and muscles
of the large intestine or descending colon. To expect permanent relief
you must therefore tone up and strengthen these organs and restore
them to healthier activity.

The discovery of the active principle of our remedy involved the labor
of the world's greatest research
chemists. An active agent it possesses the valuable qualities of the best-known intestinal tonics as well as being particularly pleasant and prompt in its results.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our recommendation. They are exceedingly pleasant to take,
being eaten like candy, and are ideal
for children, delicate persons and old folks, as well as for the robust. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on other associate organs or glands. They do not purge, cause excessive looseness nor create any inconvenience whatever.

They may be taken at any time, day or night. They will positively relieve chronic or habitual constipation.
If not of surgical variety, and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, if taken with regularity for a reasonable length of time. They come in two sizes of packages, 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents. Sold in Paducah
only at our store, The Rexall Store,
W. B. McPherson, 425 Broadway.

Daily Thought.

Die when I may, I want it said of me that I always plucked a thistle and platted a flower, where I thought a flower would grow.—Abraham Lincoln.

We suspect Senator Aldis, of New York, of even concealing one of the syllables of his name.

Ballager probably thought there was plenty more water where that came from.

Recent newspaper discussions of office building committees indicate that elevator manners are not elevating. Going down, perhaps.

We gather that the Louisville Herald doubts whether the Rockefeller Foundation will contain the stone rejected by the builders.

Mrs. Cudahy, of Kansas City, is said to have received numerous offers to go on the stage. Mr. Lillie might exhibit himself as the tattooed man.

If it is more important to make New Mexico and Arizona a Republic, than it is to insure decent rule for their valley settlers, and representative government at Washington, it is wise for congress to prohibit the disfranchisement of Mexicans. Otherwise, it would be well to permit the people of those growing territories to decide that question for themselves and also decide whether their senators shall be Democrats or Republicans. Recent immigration to New Mexico from Iowa, according to the New York Sun, shows that the territory will be Republican, anyway, by the time a state election can be held. But, whether it is or not, it would be shameful to compel the white people in those states to submit to the domination of Mexicans.

Ship subsidy, or no ship subsidy, J. P. Morgan's organization of the banking system of South American republics will put the trade in American hands. This is a matter, which has been overlooked in our efforts to secure the advantage on this hemisphere. As long as European institutions control the finances of the Latin-American states European business men will have the advantage. How important part they play in the revolutions down there, we cannot say; but it is certain that complete control of finance and trade by the United States will go far toward aiding the good offices of this government in keeping down insurrections, and inducing the South American dove of peace to become less migratory in its habits.

SPEED MANIACS.

Before any of our amateur automobilists kill each other, or kill some pedestrian, and are lynched, we offer a word of warning. There is a large number of new cars in the city and it may be more than human nature can do to refrain from trying them to see how fast they will go; but there is a time and place for all things. The Sabbath day witnessed one race on Broadway between Seventh and Ninth streets, in which two machines must have barked six miles an hour. Jefferson street, South Third street, and, undoubtedly, many other streets witnessed just as reckless disregard of the lives of citizens. The police may not have seen any of these exhibitions. If they didn't they should see some exciting events, which other people saw and reported to The Evening Sun, today.

The automobile owners secured the kind of speed law they desired from the general council, and promised to obey it. No doubt, most of them do; but there are too many who do not. The automobile owners for their own peace and comfort should take some action to restrain their more venturesome and less sensible brethren. The police judge could also assist the reform by piling all the fines and costs he can find in the statute book on the next offender haled before him.

In some cities it has been found necessary to adopt ordinance prohibiting anyone running an automobile, who has not passed an examination and secured a license. That would be a hardship on many people in Paducah; and that is why we caution automobile owners to use moral suasion, or whatever else will avail to restrain the speed maniacs.

Charles Fairbanks returns from his round of the world with the announcement that he may re-enter politics. He showed adroitness by getting to cover just before Theodore Roosevelt reached the first hole at Kharbourn. Now, watch the Hon. Teddy get around that hazard in Italy without a fizzle.

The Hon. Roger Sullivan, of Illinois; the Hon. Charles Murphy, of Tammany hall; the Hon. Norman Mack, of New York, and the Hon. Tom Taggart, of French Lick Springs, have elected Senator Culbertson, of Texas, for the next Democratic standard bearer. We decline to express an opinion until we hear from the Hon. Hinky Dink, of Chicago, and the Hon. "Flaggy" Conners, of the Buffalo docks.

TOO LATE.

How much silent love and sympathy goes wasted and unexpressed in this cold world! How often has diffidence seen the object of its affection die of cruel neglect when a word might have saved it! Could some of us overcome a natural timidity toward an unprompted expression of our real feelings, how strong our united influence for good might be!

These trite observations are suggested by the fact that thirty-six hours after the lower house of the legislature killed, upon a motion to reconsider, the bill, providing for the teaching of the elements of agriculture in the public schools, our morning contemporary blossomed forth yesterday in an editorial the length of the page and two columns wide, from which we gather sentiments that indicate a long cherished, though silent regard for the deceased. It is a beautiful tribute to the departed, and might, were its periods better arranged, have aroused the populace, even as Marc Antony's speech over Caesar's dead body. We could exclaim the unembalmed corpse, and show our contemporary just where the cruel words of the Hon. Eugene Graves stung the vitals of the bill. Does it not recall how on its first reading 'Gene said: "Any tot of seven, raised on a farm, could give those professors points on agriculture."

O, bitter words! O, wicked words! Listen to our morning contemporary, 'Gene' and see how you two disagree: "As yet the rural population is comparatively ignorant of the newest investigations in agricultural science."

But cruel as 'Gene's words are, more cruel still are the words, "What might have been." Had our morning contemporary been prompted to speak about one-eighth or one-sixteenth for the living bill, of what it said yesterday for the dead one, 'Gene Graves', our 'Gene', might have bitten out his tongue, ere he said what he said about his tots of seven and "them professors." We'll bet a fat hog 'Gene said "them professors."

STATE PRESS.

Fall From Grace.

The legislature opened with prayer and closed by refusing to order the Bible taught in public schools. There appears to have been a fall from grace all along the line.—Glasgow Times.

Rather Heated, Isn't It.

It is known of all men who will admit facts, that this is about the poorest lot of statesmen ever assembled at Frankfort and the lobby seems to be the most potent one of years. There was half a dozen senators and representatives who have absolute control over legislation and the lobby controls these bosses. They are playing politics all the time with no thought of patriotism—no regard for the welfare of the state. This same bunch of peanut politicians have arranged—or think they have arranged—everything for the state election next year. They have divided up the offices and made all arrangements for everything in that particular, but thank God many a political state has been busted and no doubt this can be smashed, or at least badly marred. The people are in no humor to be tied up like bunches of onions and sold and will not stand for it and if it is tried, it means Democratic defeat for state officers in the good year 1912.—Bowling Green News.

A Bond Issue.

Kentucky has been unique in many respects, possibly most unique in the fact that she has been without a bonded debt as other states have them. The debt of Kentucky to the school fund of Kentucky cannot be considered a bonded debt any more than it can be considered possible for a man to owe money to himself. The Arnett bond bill, passing the senate, is the first step to a bonded indebtedness on the part of Kentucky, and while being without a bonded debt is a position of uniqueness, a state without money in her treasury is also a position of uniqueness—uncomfortable uniqueness, at that.

Something had to be done. With appropriations for public uses whittled down to the finest of points, or completely ignored because of the financial condition of the treasury, it was either a bond issue or an issue of interest-bearing certificates. Kentucky can afford the issue.

Stories sent out from Frankfort about Governor Wilson "whipping the Democrats into line for the bond issue," may be discounted. But it is far better for the state that the disposition of the question be made at a regular session without the possibility of an extra session with the later, minable county unit bill among the subjects for discussion or for action.—Owensboro Messenger.

The End of the Legislative Grind. Tuesday night at 12 o'clock the legislature adjourns. Unless there is a special session called by the governor, it will be two years before another legislature convenes. The two bodies of the legislature from Monday morning till Tuesday night will pass many measures of vital importance. Other measures of equal importance will be killed. More work will be accomplished in the thirty-six hours from 12 o'clock noon Monday till 12 o'clock midnight Tuesday than in any previous week during the session of the legislature.

Every bill that has passed, every bill that is defeated, is a subject of intense interest to some citizens of Kentucky. It would be illuminating for those who are interested in legislation which has not already been decided to go to Frankfort Monday or Tuesday, preferably Tuesday afternoon and night, to watch the grinding of the legislative mill.

Those who are interested in bills which have been defeated ought to prepare immediately to begin a campaign to educate public sentiment to demand their passage at the next session of the legislature. Such bills as the bill providing for a uniform system of accounting in, and inspection of, public offices; the bill granting school suffrage to women; the bill providing for adequate appropriations for the state university and the state Normal schools; the good roads bill, among the most important bills which were introduced and ought to have been passed unanimously by both houses and received the approval of the governor; the bill providing for a commission form of government, the passage of which still seems probable,—we hope, certain;—a thorough revision of the election laws, of which no revision was made at this session; a thorough revision of the tax laws,—we are inclined to believe, the calling of a constitutional convention to abolish the infernal constitution with which Kentucky's limbs are now bound—are a few of the matters which ought to be discussed continuously from now until the convening of the next session of the legislature.—Lexington Herald.

The Governor Is Right.

Gov. Wilson speaks strongly on the failure of the legislature to provide a means of meeting Kentucky's obligations. The governor is justified in his attitude.

The general assembly has wasted a session in political juggling, dodging the mandates of the people, and passing a few bills of merit as a sort of sop to the irritated and disgusted voters. It has made appropriations right and left, evidently with the hope of placating this interest or that, but refusing to take any action that may properly provide for the expenditures thus warranted.

Whenever a deputation of good women, eager for a generous grant to some worthy charity, appeared at the capitol, the courtly gentlemen of the house and senate straightway made their best bows, some gallant member rose and launched on a little complimentary oratory, then the bill with its $10,000 dollar appropriation, or whatever it might be, was introduced and passed amid cheers.

The good women smiled their gratitude from the gallery, clapped their gloved hands, and with a rustle of skirts made their exit, feeling that by their gracious presence they had accomplished much.

But they did not observe that the legislature's tongue was in its cheek. They did not realize that they had been handed a beautifully gilded brick. They little thought that these large hearted and liberal gentlemen were voting them appropriations to meet which they had made, and are evidently deterred to make no provision.

These gentlemen now hope that the blame will fall on Governor Wilson, who can do nothing else than veto many of the measures calling for money which is not in the treasury. They hope that these good women and other well-intentioned people will vent their anger and disappointment on the man, who is the ultimate trustee of the people, and who will not hesitate to do his duty even if it be at the cost of unpopularity from those who do not see the trap into which they have been led.

The governor is right to speak vigorously, and will be right in vetoing these bills, and those who may suffer as a result are advised to exact the penalty from the smiling and polite members of the house and senate who played the filia-fiam game upon them.—Louisville Herald.

JAMES FERRIMAN

PROSPEROUS FARMER AND

HOOVER IS DEAD.

Citizen of Grand Rivers Passes Away at Home of Sister, Mrs. M. F. Emery.

James Ferriman, a prosperous farmer and cattle raiser at Grand Rivers, Ky., died at 7:15 o'clock this morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. M. F. Emery, Sixth and Jefferson streets, after a two months' serious illness of diabetes. Mr. Ferriman was 76 years of age. He had been in poor health for the past year and two months ago came to Paducah, where he became suddenly ill and was confined to his bed since that time. His condition for two weeks past had been critical.

James Ferriman, the son of Elizabeth and George Ferriman, a noted English sea captain, was born on the island of Jamaica in the West Indian islands. At the age of six years he came to the United States with his parents and they settled at Albion, Ill., where Mr. Ferriman lived until twenty years ago, when he came to Paducah. At Albion Mr. Ferriman was engaged in farming and cattle raising. On his coming to this city he, with Mr. L. W. Emery, purchased "Seven Mile Island" near Grand Rivers and used 1,000 acres for farming and breeding cattle for different markets.

Mr. Ferriman purchased a palatial mansion at Grand Rivers where he and his last wife, who now survives, resided. He was married three times, his last marriage being to Miss Katherine Drenback. He leaves only one child, Mr. Frank Ferriman, of this city, and two sisters and two brothers, as follows: Mrs. M. F. Emery and Miss Mary Ferriman, of Paducah; Messrs. George Ferriman, of Albion, Ill., and Henry Ferriman, of Olney, Ill.

The body will be sent to Albion tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock to be buried beside the graves of his brothers and parents. He leaves a large number of nieces and nephews living at Albion. Mr. Ferriman was brought up in the Episcopal church but did not hold membership. He was formerly a member of the Odd Fellows lodge. His last marriage was about 20 years ago at Paducah. Mr. Ferriman was well known in Paducah and leaves many close friends.

Mayfield Letter

Mayfield, Ky., March 14. (Special)

—Sunday morning about 11:30 o'clock fire broke out in a house belonging to Mr. Ed. Gardner, and occupied by Mr. Palmer. It seems that the fire was caused from a defective flue. Fire wagon No. 1 was called out, and through efforts of Chief Bledsoe and his men the fire was rapidly checked. All except a few pieces of furniture were taken from the house and saved from damage by water.

The house is located directly in front of the stand pipe near the water works. The house was not entirely destroyed, the roof being the only part burned.

Laid to Rest Sunday.

Redden Murder Case Closes.

Mayfield, Ky., March 14.—The noted Horace Redden murder case came to a close late yesterday afternoon, the closing speech being made by Commonwealth's Attorney R. L. Smith, of Clinton. The case was heard fought from the outset and the best legal talent of the city was employed on both sides. Redden killed Herman Humphreys in 1908, but the case has never come to trial. River and Weather.

Boat at 7 a. m. marked 36.1 ft. indicating a fall of one-tenth of a foot since yesterday. Weather clear and cool; business good.

With a good trip of freight the J. Richardson arrived in port for Nashville at 3 o'clock this morning. She departed at noon today for Clarksville and returns here Wednesday morning, leaving that day for a return trip to Nashville.

Engineer Al Anson has returned from a business trip to Nashville. The towboats Margaret and its sell Lord, of the Ayer & Lord company, are expected in port this afternoon from White river via.

The Margaret will depart tomorrow for Nashville and the J. Richardson will leave tomorrow for Nashville and the Russell Lord will leave tomorrow for a return trip to White river.

A model of a large, 4 1/2 feet long and 15 inches wide is on display at the office of Capt. Henry Baker, transportation manager of the Ayer & Lord T. Co. on First street and is attracting much attention. The model was made in spare time by George Wade, the fleet carpenter, and shows skill and considerable work on his part.

The John L. Lowry arrived here Sunday at noon and after discharging and receiving freight at the wharfboat she left at 2 p. m. for a return trip to Evansville.

The Chattanooga arrived at 8 o'clock last night from Chattanooga, Tenn., and went below today. She will leave here Wednesday for a return trip to the Tennessee.

The Clyde is due out of the Tennessee from Waterloo, Ala. tonight. She leaves here Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock for a return trip to the Tennessee.

The Nashville was in port Saturday night with a big trip and is enjoying a good business between here and Nashville. She will return Wednesday.

It has been announced that the steamer Queen City will make another trip to New Orleans next month with about 200 members of the Mystic Shrine.

Two mules that got loose from Pettor's stable this morning created some fun on the levee, but were finally headed back to the stables. An one means of escape the pair dashed on to the south stage of the wharfboat, but it was not as inviting as they first thought and they turned and fled. After "plowing" up some of the Illinois Central park ground they were caught.

The river here is practically stationary. Today it was rough and many duck hunters were out for a day's sport.

NIGHT SESSION FOR PRISONERS

TWO WILL TAKE INSOLVENT DEBTOR'S OATH AFTER MIDNIGHT.

Uncle Sam's strict methods of doing business and the desire of two prisoners to gain their freedom will mean that Elwood Neel, deputy United States marshal, and W. A. Mrs. Dick and Henry Pearson, who were arrested in Mayfield, charged with bootlegging, will finish serving their jail sentence, and at midnight will take the debtor's insolvent oath, and gain their freedom.

They must remain in the jail until midnight in order to complete their sentence, and as they want to return to Mayfield as soon as possible, the obliging officials have arranged to have them take the oath a few minutes after 12 o'clock, and they can return to Mayfield on the early morning train.

Latta Asks for a Bonus.

Hickman, Ky., March 14.—President S. G. Latta, of the Chicago, Memphis & Gulf Railroad company, which is preparing to extend its line from Tiptonville, Tenn., to Hickman, Ky., was in this city in behalf of this new road. Two miles of this road coming this way from Tiptonville, has been let and work started, and President Latta says they expect to build right up into Hickman if they get the proper encouragement. At present there are only ten miles more of the road to contract to bring it on into this city, and if what Mr. Latta considers a reasonable bonus can be raised, there will be little delay in filling this gap.

KOMURA SCOUTS WAR TALK.

American-Japanese Relations Show No Cause for Uneasiness.

New York, March 14.—The New York World prints the following cabled response to an inquiry it had sent Count Komura, foreign minister, as to the status of American-Japanese affairs:

"I am convinced there is nothing in American-Japanese relations to cause uneasiness. The real far eastern interests of the two powers are not inconsistent or antagonistic. War is inconceivable. It would be a crime without excuse or palliation. My conviction finds ample support in the understanding of 1903."

MURDER CHARGE FOR OLD MAN.

Inquest Over Columbus Stout Damaging to Lem Smith.

Bristol, Tenn., March 14.—The coroner's inquest, held over the body of Columbus Stout, who was shot to death by Lem Smith, developed that the state has a strong case against the accused man. It seems that Stout's younger brother was engaged in a fight with Smith's two sons and was getting the worst of it. Stout rushed in to defend him, while Lem Smith procured a shotgun and fired upon Stout. The preliminary trial occurs today. Smith, who is 65 years old, will be charged with murder in the first degree.

HERO OF "LITTLE MEN" DIES.

Louisa M. Alcott Wrote Book About Her Nephew.

Boston, Mass., March 14.—Fred Alcott Pratt died last night at his home in Concord, aged 46. He was born in Chelsea and went to Concord when a child, occupying the Alcott home. Mr. Pratt was a nephew of the late Louisa M. Alcott, the writer, and figured in her story of "Little Men" as did his brother, John Pratt, who, by special request of Miss Alcott, whose help he was, had his name changed from John Alcott Pratt to John Pratt Alcott. The two brothers were "Jo's Boys" in Miss Alcott's story, readers of which will recall these characters as well as those in "Little Women," to which it served as a sort of sequel. Miss Alcott herself was the Jo of the story, which served to give her an introduction to the literary world.

NEW DRY SENATOR

PASTOR WAGGONER IS BEING ROOMED FOR UPPER BODY.

Author of County Unit Bill Selected by Democrats of Henry County for State Senator.

Frankfort, Ky., March 14.—It now seems a certainty that the Rev. George C. Waggoner, leader of the dry forces in the house of representatives, will be transferred to the state senate, when next it meets in regular session in 1912.

It is Henry county's turn to have the seat in the upper branch of the legislature, for the Twenty-first senatorial district, which includes the counties of Carroll, Henry, Trimble and Oldham.

Senator J. A. Donaldson, of Carroll county, who now represents the district, is a consistent county unit man, but he will not come back, as the seat goes in regular order to Henry county.

All over Henry county a strong sentiment has developed favorable to Waggoner for senator, and by the fall of 1911 it is felt that he will be in the lead in the race.

Waggoner said that he had given no thought to the matter, but that he had been urged to announce. He said he was too busy with the affairs of 1910 to think of 1912, but far-seeing politicians of the dry persuasion are not.

They know that county option is dead so far as this general assembly is concerned, and they know that they must concentrate in an effort to control the state senate. If ever they are to accomplish anything. Therefore, the Waggoner boom is on.

Night On Bald Mountain.

Y., climbed Bald Mountain to the home of a neighbor, tortured by Asthma, bent on curing him with Dr. King's New Discovery, that had cured himself of asthma. Coughs, Colds, Croup, Hemorrhages and Sore Throats are surely cured by it. Best for Hay Fever, Grip and Whooping Cough. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

CONSERVATION LEGALIZING HARD

NEW PUBLIC LAND BILLS ARE BEING DRAWN.

President May Be Given Authority to Withdraw Land at Pleasure—Water Power Bill.

THE COMMITTEE HAS TROUBLE.

Washington, March 14.—Senators from public land states, who were appointed a special committee to prepare conservation bills along lines that would harmonize the laws, are finding that the road they must traverse is far from an easy one. A number of bills are before the committee, but it is giving its attention principally to the measure known as the classification bill. The committee is composed of Senators Smoot, of Utah, Clark, of Wyoming, and Dixon, of Montana, Republicans, and Hughes, of Colorado, and Chamberlain, of Oregon, Democrats. A majority of them are known to be favorable to the general theory of conservation. Senators Clark and Hughes, however, are antagonistic to the proposed change of the public land policy.

The testimony before the Ballinger-Pinchot investigating committee has disclosed the fact that the general land office, forest service, reclamation and geological survey are not operating in sympathy, and this makes the work of the conservation committee all the more difficult. It is their opinion that if the classification and the withdrawal bill can be passed, the way will be easy for other measures, which in the main look to the disposal of the lands under the classification bill.

Must Classify Lands.

The principal obstacle in the way to an agreement on the classification bill are found in the provisions relating to oil lands and waterpower sites. This bill authorizes all the public lands, as agricultural, irrigable, non-irrigable, grazing, dry farming, coal, oil, gas, asphaltum and waterpower lands. Many senators contend it would be quite impossible to classify oil lands in advance, and senators who hold this view are making trouble for the committee. The committee itself appreciates this difficulty, and there is a growing tendency towards a provision for the leasing rather than the sale of lands supposed to cover oil deposits. If the bill should be framed in accordance with this idea, any person could lease a tract of land and put down his well, and if successful in finding oil, could then acquire the land under the mining laws.

Water Power Causes Contention.
The subject of waterpower sites has been made the basis of many conferences, not only among senators, but with the executive branch of the government as well. Owing to the fact that the states control the streams it is everywhere recognized as difficult for the government to continue its supervision of the lands immediately bordering the streams, as power sites necessarily must. On this account the senate seems favorably disposed towards the grant of the power sites to the general states, and it is believed the administration may be able to agree to his disposition if the sufficient restrictions of the grant are provided for.

The withdrawal bill is giving the committee almost as much concern as the classification bill, notwithstanding it is now on the senate calendar.

The language of the bill is so broad that it authorizes the president to withdraw practically all of the pub-

TUMOR OF YEARS GROWTH

Removed by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Holly Springs, Miss.—"Words are inadequate for me to express what your wonderful medicine has done for me. The doctors said I had a tumor, and I had an operation, but was soon as bad as before. I wrote to you for advice, and began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you told me to do. I am glad to say that now I look and feel so well that my friends keep asking me what has helped me so much, and I gladly recommend your Vegetable Compound."—MRS. W. L. ELLIOTT, Holly Springs, Miss.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy—tumor. If you have mysterious pains, inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation, but try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and such unquestionable testimony as the above proves the value of this famous remedy, and should give everyone confidence.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

STILL MISSING

ALMA KELLNER VANISHED THREE MONTHS AGO.

No Word From Her Yet and Family Hopes Against Hope For Her Return.

Louisville, Ky., March 14.—Alma Kellner, eight years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Kellner, left her home at 207 East Broadway, three months ago, attended services at St. John's Roman Catholic church, at Clay and Walnut, and since, who has been mysteriously and completely missing as though she had been swallowed by an earthquake.

Police and detectives have searched the country and the Red Men and Mamons, of which fraternities her father is a member, have aided in the investigation, and hunt, but no tidings have been received of her, nor about or late been brought to light.

Anonymous letters reaching near the thousand mark have been received and investigated at great expense, revealing the fact that they were from clairvoyants and cranks, and the information they imparted was worthless. Frank Fehr, a relative, who managed the campaign to recover the lost girl, said that no such letters have been received in ten days. Large rewards for the restoration of Alma were offered by the city, relatives and private citizens. The family announced willingness to pay ransom for her return, promising immunity from prosecution. Time has only deepened the mystery involving her disappearance.

Members of the family still cling to the theory that she was kidnapped. Yet they are unable to account for the motive. Their theory is based more on the hope than anything else. They say they cannot understand the matter.

Asked whether he believed Alma was alive and well, Mr. Fehr said: "We have no way of knowing, but of course, we are hopeful. We cannot feel otherwise."

MARY MANNERING MEYS HOME.

$100,000 Residence of James H. Eckles Acquired by Actress, Milwaukee, Wis., March 1.—Miss Mary Mannerling has purchased the palatial property of former Comptroller of the Currency James H. Eckles at Oconomowoc, Wis., for a summer home.

The Eckles property has been on the market for a long time, and the announcement that Miss Mannerling has become its owner probably means that the Badger state will be the home of this popular player for three or four months of every year henceforth.

The Eckles estate at Oconomowoc was erected by Mr. Eckles. It is said, at a cost of $400,000, and is one of the most magnificent pieces of property to be found in the west for the purpose to which its new owner proposes putting it.

ENEMIES

ARE CIRCULATING STORIES ABOUT L. C. GRAFT.

Only Explanation President Harahan Can Give for Their Publication.

Chicago, Ill., March 14.—That some one who "has it in" for the Illinois Central railroad or its executive is circulating reports of a shortage in the company's accounts and of an alleged investigation of its financial condition to determine the causes for decreasing net earnings during recent months is the explanation offered by President J. T. Harahan for the rumors heard in the last week.

Asked whether he thought friends of Stuyvesant Fish, Harahan's predecessor as executive of the road who was ousted by the late E. H. Harriman, were responsible for the rumors Mr. Harahan declined to express any opinion.

"Some one is responsible for the simultaneous publication of such outrageous stories in different parts of the country," said Mr. Harahan. "In my lifetime I undoubtedly have made enemies and some one evidently is seeking this method of 'getting even.'"

No Investigation Under Way.

"There is no investigation under way and no shortage or graft to investigate. The report that Haskins & Sells are examining our books is not worth answering, but inasmuch as it has been printed I will say that it is false. The accountants will tell you the same thing. Our net earnings have fallen off. It is true, but so have those of nearly every western railroad, on account of the great increase in operating expenses due to the severe winter.

"Mr. P. Danvelt came here as controller a few weeks ago after a search for the best man for the place, and of course he has been going over the books and familiarizing himself with the situation. We always scrutinize our accounts pretty carefully when earnings decrease. The circulation of such reports does great harm to the road and there is no reason for it, unless it be spite-work."

Haskins & Sells denied that the firm had anything to do with the Illinois Central accounts either in Chicago or in New York.

EARLY, SO-CALLED LEPRO.

Spanish War Veterans Will Raise Fund For Man.

New York, March 14.—The Fourteenth regiment camp, No. 12, United Spanish War Veterans, of Brooklyn, will raise funds to send J. W. Early west. Whether Early in a leper is a question, but there is no question about his being destitute. He can not get work, because no one wants to hire a man said to have leprosy.

The United States government has cut off his pension. Without it, and unable to get work, Early can not support his wife and little children. Other camps of Spanish war veterans understand what it means to fight under a tropical sun, as Early did in the Philippines, and have pledged themselves to aid Camp No. 12. These camps absolutely refuse outside assistance in raising the money to help Early.

Home Course
In Live Stock
Farming

I.—Fences.

By C. V. GREGORY.

Author of "Home Course In Modern Agriculture," "Fishing Money on the Farm," Etc.

Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.

ONE of the most important parts
of the equipment for live stock farming is a good system of fences. Poor fences
cause broodstock and endless trouble. In the case of horses a wire cut due to a poor fence will often mean
a large enough loss to pay for several rod of good fence.

Woven wire is unquestionably the best fencing material. It is slightly durable and efficient. The expense is higher than for barbed wire, but this can be cut down by making only the lower part of the fence of woven wire
and using barbed wire for the upper part. The strip of woven wire should be from two to three feet in height.

FIG. 1.—A WELL BRACED CORNER POST

With two or three barbed wires on top,
this makes a fence that will turn any kind of stock from pigs to horses.
There is little danger of a horse getting into such a fence and getting cut.

Where much stock is kept it will pay
to have the entire farm fenced with this or some other kind of fence that is hog or sheep tight. It is not a question of whether you can afford it or not; it is a question of whether you can afford not to do it. It will probably not be possible to fence all the farm in one year, but the work should be done as rapidly as possible. The extra feed the hogs and sheep will pick up will pay the entire cost of fencing in a very few years.

Cement Posts.

The first part of the fence to be put up is the posts. The time for putting up cheap posts that will rot out and need renewal in three or four years is past. There are two ways of securing lasting posts—making them of cement and treating wooden posts with creosote. Cement posts are not hard to make. The first step is to make a wooden mold of the proper size. About six inches square at the bottom, tapering to four at the top, is a very good size. Three cornered strips should be placed in the bottom of the molds to make the corners of the posts round.

A number of molds can be built side by side, so that several posts can be made at once. The best mixture for cement posts is one part portland cement, two and one-half parts clean, sharp sand and five parts gravel. The sand and cement should be mixed dry.
Then add water and mix to a thick mortar. After this is well mixed spread it out in a thin layer and spread
the required amount of gravel over it.
Mix the whole mass well by shoveling
over several times.

The inside of the molds should be greased with soft soap to keep the cement from sticking. Spread about one and one-half inches of concrete
over the bottom and tamp it well.

Near each corner lay a steel wire lengthwise of the post. These re-enforcing wires should be fairly heavy,
but will not need to be galvanized, as
the concrete will keep them from rusting. They should be looped at the end to prevent slipping. Now add concrete up to within an inch of the top of the mold, tamp again and put in two more re-enforcing wires. Fill the mold to the top, tamp and round off the upper corners. Long staples with the points bent a little to keep them from pulling out should be stuck
into the cement at the places where the wires are to be fastened. After the posts are set the wires can be fastened to these staples by a small piece of soft wire twisted through them.

After the cement has partially set
it should be covered with sand to keep it from drying out too rapidly.
The posts should be sprinkled at least once a day for a week, when they may be taken from the molds and stored away in moist and to cure. It takes sixty days for cement post to cure
properly, and it should not be set before that time. In the meantime the sand should be kept moist by occasional sprinklings. The cost of material for cement posts the size mentioned and seven feet long is not more than 25 cents a post, not counting the labor. When once in place
they will last practically forever.

The method of treating wooden fence-posts with creosote is very simple and inexpensive. Any kind of post is suitable for use with this treatment—l-luded, the poorest soft wood posts last
the longest after being properly treated. The apparatus needed consists of two small metal tanks, one of which is arranged so that a fire can be built under it. Both tanks are filled two-

C. V. GREGORY

thirds full of creosote, which can be bought by the barrel at reasonable rates. The creosote in one of these tanks is heated almost to boiling, and
the posts, which must be well seasoned, are placed in it and left for about six hours. Usually only the part of the post that is to go into the ground
is treated.

After remaining in the hot creosote
for six hours the posts are taken out
and immediately placed in the cold creosote. The sudden reduction of temperature causes the steam in the pores of the post to contract, making
a partial vacuum, and the air pressure drives the creosote into all parts of the post. This treatment costs only about 10 cents a post. The treated posts will last twenty years or longer,
or about five times as long as untreated ones.

In putting up a permanent woven wire fence great care must be taken to see that the corner posts are well braced. Fig. 1 shows a very effective way of making a solid corner. The corner post should be considerably larger than the others. A hole 2 by 4 should be dug to set it in. Bolt a piece of plank about three feet long
to the bottom of the post and a shorter piece at right angles to the first. Fill in dirt up to the top of these and tamp
it solid. Then roll in a number of large stones and fill the rest of the hole with dirt, tamping it well all the way up. Such a post, if properly braced, will not give much under any strain that may be put upon it. A way that is still better, though a little more expensive, is to set the corner
post in cement.

The fencing selected should be strongly woven and made of good sized wire. Flimsy fencing costs a little less at first, but does not last well enough to warrant putting it up. Be sure that the cross wires are fastened firmly to the longitudinal strands, so that they cannot be spread out of place. Both the woven and the barbed wire should be well galvanized. Wire that is galvanized after weaving, as shown by the crevices and joints being filled with the galvanizing material,
will last much longer than that which is galvanized before weaving. In the latter case the galvanizing material
will be more or less cracked, and the wire will soon begin to rust.

It is of great importance to have the wire well stretched. An ordinary wire stretcher will not stretch woven wire tightly enough. Where a large quantity is purchased at a time a powerful wire stretcher is usually thrown in.
It will pay to set a temporary post a little way back from the corner post and stretch from there. The wire should be wrapped around the corner post and fastened in several places, as the strain

is very heavy. If there are more than twenty rods in a single line it will be necessary to brace a line post
midway between the corners to stretch
from, as more than twenty rods cannot be tightened satisfactorily at one stretch.

Wherever a gate is to be put in the
posts will have to be braced solidly.
A good way to do this is to put in posts that will extend about twelve feet above the ground and connect the tops with a strong wire. This method of bracing cannot be used with cement
posts, as they will not stand much lateral strain.

FIG. 2.—A GOOD FARM GATE.

A swinging gate is by far the most convenient, provided it is properly put
in. It should be well enough braced
so that it will not sag and drag on the ground. In places where the snow is likely to drift a gate that can be adjusted to various heights is a great convenience. Fig. 2 shows a convenient and easily constructed type of wooden gate. For road gates and at other places where appearance counts
for anything an iron gate is preferable.
It looks better and is more durable,
but the cost is considerably greater.

IN TOUCH WITH FRIENDS and RELATIVES

A GRANDMOTHER may not be as spry as she used to be, but she is in close touch with her world for all that.

The telephone enables her to make as many calls as she pleases, in all sorts of weather.

Formal gatherings have their place, but it is the many little intimate visits over the telephone that keep people young and interested.

Grandmother's telephone visits do not stop with her own town. The Long Distance Service of the Bell Telephone takes her to other towns, and allows relatives and friends to chat with her, although hundreds of miles away.

The demand is not for a cheap telephone service but for a "comprehensive" and "reliable" telephone service.

MORNING FIRE

DAMAGES RESIDENCE OF COUNCILMAN BOWER.

Roof Burned Off and Contents of His Home Soaked With Water.

Early Sunday morning fire burned the roof off the residence of Councilman W. L. Bower, 166 Farley place, and damaged the house to the extent of about $1,000. The water did considerable damage to the household furnishings. The fire was discovered at 2:15 o'clock, but fortunately the entire family escaped from their burning home without injuries.

When discovered the flames burst out the roof, and made a spectacular blaze. The watchman at the Mergenthaler-Norton basket plant saw the fire and sent in an alarm over the private alarm system of the Western Union Telegraph company. Thinking it was the big plant on fire hose companies, Nos. 1, 2 and 4, truck company, No. 4, and the steamer from the No. 2 station responded to the alarm. Two streams of water were directed on the fire, and after about two hours' work the fire was extinguished.

The furniture on the second floor was damaged considerably, while water soaked through on the first floor as it was necessary to use a large amount of water to quench the fire. The residence is a large two-story frame structure, valued at about $3,000.

With the roof burning over their head, Councilman Bower and his family were not aware of the fire until the fire companies reached the scene, and began throwing water on the roof. Particles of burning wood were dropping through the ceiling, but the members of the household escaped without burns or injuries. The cause of the blaze is unknown but it originated in the attic, and

HAMILTON IS THE VICTIM

Seattle, Wash., March 14.—Charles K. Hamilton, the aviator, was injured by the capsizing of his Curtiss biplane, which fell with him while he was executing a fancy maneuver. He is at a hospital suffering from shock and complaints of a violent pain in the head, but no bones were broken.

As the closing feature of a highly successful exhibition, Hamilton, from a height of 3,500 feet, essayed a rapid descent to a pond of water, intending to skim over the surface. The biplane glided gracefully to the bottom of the pond, but the man had miscalculated the distance and the planes struck the water, with the result that the machine instantly turned a somersault and fell, a mass of wreckage, into the water.

Hamilton disentangled himself and swam to shore, 20 feet away. He was assisted to an automobile nearby. The 10,000 people who witnessed the accident dispersed in the belief that Hamilton was unhurt, and the automobile went at top speed to Providence hospital, where Hamilton who was injured, was attended by physicians.

May Last Aviation.

New York, March 14.—America stands to lose the international meet for the Gordon Bennett trophy, won last summer by Glenn H. Curtiss, of Hammondsport, N. Y., if the Wright brothers win their suit now pending against Louis Paulhan, the French aviator, who is now giving exhibitions here.

Cortlandt Field Bishop, president of the Aero Club of America, said that all foreign aviators of note have assured him that they will not sign contracts to appear in this country until the suit against Paulhan is decided. If Paulhan wins they will be glad to compete. If he loses, they do not care to place themselves within the jurisdiction of American courts. All the aero clubs of Europe and the British Isles have informed Mr. Bishop they will hold no meets between October 1 and November 18, 1910, in order that the Aero Club of America may be left a free hand in naming a date for the international meet.

The Wright brothers have been granted a temporary injunction in the United States circuit court, restraining Paulhan from flights in his Farman biplane, which they contend infringes on their patents, and counsel for Paulhan must appear next week to show cause why the injunction should not be made permanent. In the meantime a compromise has been reached, by which he is permitted to give exhibitions under a bond.

"A LIVING LINK"

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH SUPPORTS MISSIONARY.

First Presbyterian Will Fill Church Offices—The Sunday Services.

"First church became a living link yesterday, shared six times appointments and sixteen times amount given last year. Accept Miss Eva May Ray as missionary."

This message was sent today by the Rev. W. A. Fite, pastor of the First Christian church, to Stephen J. Corey of Cincinnati. The First church yesterday raised $600 for foreign missions and will support Miss Ray at Nanjing, China. The church's apportionment was $140. Last year it raised $26.50. Dr. Fite has been preaching missions for a month, and Mr. Corey came here in the interest of foreign missions. Two large congregations attended yesterday. Mr. Elliott Mitchell sang in the morning and Miss Willie White at night.

Kentucky Avenue. Yesterday was one of the best days that the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church has had this year, the attendance in all the branches being above the average.

First Presbyterian. Communion service was celebrated at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning, the first Dr. H. W. Burwell has presided over in this city. There was one addition to the church. At night he preached on the fall of man, emphasizing the under-estimation of temptations, and the terrible aspect of an apparently trivial sin, when seen in retrospect. Miss Sarah Rodgers sang in the morning and Mr. Emmet Bagby at night. The first Sunday in April an election of elders and deacons will be held.

Broadway Methodist. Well attended services were reported from the Broadway Methodist church for yesterday, the preaching services, Sunday school, the Bible class and the Epworth League all being largely attended. Eight applications for membership were received. Dr. Sullivan will baptize 20 adults and 15 children into the church Easter. The Pastors' association meets at this church tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The Rev. G. W. Banks, pastor of the Fountain Avenue Methodist church will review the book of John R. Mott, on missions.

Fountain Avenue. Two unusually large services were held at the Fountain Avenue Methodist church yesterday. Next Wednesday and Friday evenings the Rev. E. H. Ramsey, former pastor of the Broadway Methodist church, will address the congregation. Thursday evening he will speak on "What Sort of a Man to Marry," and on Friday evening on "What Sort of a Woman to Marry."

Services were held at all of the churches of the South Side Methodist circuit and all were largely attended.

First Baptist. "Great Faith" was the subject of a strong sermon last night by the Rev. M. E. Dodd, pastor of the First Baptist church. In his discourse Dr. Dodd emphasized the necessity of all Christians having strong faith in the Bible and the Master's teachings. He said there are many passages in the Bible, the meaning of which have not been explained, but more men can not know all of those. He said that only twice in the Bible had Christ commended persons for great faith and these were two heathens, while he rebuked four disciples for their little faith. At the close of the service there was one addition. At the morning service Dr. Dodd preached on "Mr. Little Faith." Large congregations heard both sermons.

This week will be a week of prayer for home missions in the church and every afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the ladies will meet at the church for the purpose of holding a short service. Each afternoon a member of the church will be leader of the prayer service.

Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the lecture room of the church the Ladies' Mite society will give a reception to the young people of the church and the new members. The reception will be for the purpose of enabling the members to become acquainted better socially.

Second Baptist. A large attendance was reported from the Second Baptist church for yesterday and one addition to the church was received.

The usual well attended services were held at the North Twelfth Baptist church yesterday. One addition was received.

German Churches. Two interesting services were held at the German Evangelical church yesterday. At the congregational meeting it was decided to secure a student from the Eden seminary, at St. Louis, to fill the pulpit during the summer or until a pastor can be procured. Communion services will be held next Sunday instead of Easter Sunday. It will be conducted in both German and English. Prof. R. Fress, of Eden Seminary, St. Louis, will hold the Easter services.

The regular program with large attendance was carried out at the German Lutheran church yesterday. Interesting sermons were preached by the pastor, the Rev. William Grother. The Luther League will meet Tuesday afternoon at the school house on important business.

Religious Services at County Alms House.

The Rev. Mr. Chiles, of Hope Rescue Mission, assisted by Brother William Payton, of the Presbyterian church, got together a double wagon load of "practical Christians" and drove out to the county alms house Sunday afternoon and held religious services. Mr. Payton, who led the service, made a pathetic appeal to the poor unfortunates, using as his text:
